MAJORS AND MINORS, 2009

How to structure a major / minor

Major

A major requires the completion of a minimum of eight units (48 points) in one area of study. Normally a major will include two first-level units (12 points) and either two units at second-level (12 points) and four units at third-level (24 points), or three units at second-level (18 points) and three units at third level (18 points). A major is normally taken over three years.

Minor

A minor requires the completion of a minimum of four units (24 points) in one area of study and will normally comprise two first-level units (12 points) followed by two second-level units (12 points), or two second-level units (12 points) followed by two third-level units (12 points). A minor is normally taken over two years
