

MONASH UNIVERSITY

JAPANESE STUDIES

Seminar Series July-October 2009

Monday July 20, 1:00 pm

Cho Bak speaks: "Japan Forgets ZAINICHI": 100 years of zainichi experience in Osaka

Wednesday August 12, 1:00 pm

Ryuko Yokosuka (Kokushikan University): Change in interaction of participants in a classroom - from the viewpoint of speech style (IN JAPANESE)

Friday August 14, 2:00 pm

Ross Mouer and Jun Tsutsumi: Australia-Japan Relations and the role of Sister Cities

Friday August 28, 2:00 pm

Hiroshi Ichihara (Surugadai University): Mini-symposium on Japanese Labour History

Friday September 11, 2:00 pm

Elise Foxworth: Embodied subjectivity in the literature of Kim Ha Gyong, a Korean writer in Japan

Friday September 18, 2:00 pm

Jim Breen (Monash University): How do we identify and define Japanese neologisms which are not yet in any dictionaries?

Tuesday October 6, 1:00 pm

Carolyn Stevens (University of Melbourne): Caregiving and disability in Japan

Friday October 16, 2:00 pm

Tetsuo Mizukami (Rikkyo University): The Japanese Community in Singapore

Friday October 30, 2:00 pm

Nobuaki Fujioka (Hitotsubashi University): Motivation and Life Histories of Japanese Working Holiday Makers in Australia.

All seminars take place in the Japanese Studies Auditorium, Clayton Campus building 54 (next to the bus loop).

Enquiries: Alison.Tokita@arts.monash.edu.au