

Buddhism today

One founder, many paths

A forum bringing together monastics, academics and lay practitioners to discuss the different practices, traditions and social engagement of Victorian Buddhists

Themes:

- Buddhist lineages in Victoria
- Temples, ceremonies and festivities
- Happiness, health and wellbeing
- Serving the community

Sunday 27 June 2010
9:00 am to 6:00pm
Monash University,
Room H116, Building H
900 Dandenong Road, Caulfield

Bookings essential: 0412 590 624 or peggy.page@bcv.org.au

$15 full / $10 concession
Please bring your own lunch

The forum will include the launch of Padmasiri de Silva's new book Buddhist and Freudian Psychology

For further information see www.arts.monash.edu.au/psi/buddhism-today/