

MONASH University

Arts

Lunchtime Concert Series

Semester 1 and 2, 2009
Gippsland Campus

Free entry

All performances are free.
Seats are limited.
We suggest you arrive early.
Large groups should give advance notice to ensure seats are available.

presented by
The School of Music – Conservatorium sponsored by
Monash University Gippsland Campus

Go Boldly.

Semester 1

Wednesday 29 April

A Journey through the mind of Hamlet

Text compiled by Peter Oyston
Choreography by Fiona Battersby

Hamlet is one of the greatest of plays in the English language, and in this exploration, dance and text are presented providing insights into both the character of Hamlet and how dance and text are linked.

Wednesday 13 May

Jazz

Jazz tunes by students of the School of Music–Conservatorium

Wednesday 27 May

Tamara Smolyar-piano Ivana Tomaskova-violin

A fascinating blend of Eastern and Western European piano solo and chamber music. Works by Mendelsohn, Franck, Martinu and Suk.

Semester 2

Wednesday 12 August

Piano

Come and experience the talents of an international pianist here at Monash.

Wednesday 26 August

Philomel Choral Ensemble Conductor Faye Dumont

School of Music Conservatorium students will present a concert of choral music drawn from composers from all around the world.

Wednesday 9 September

Jazz

Jazz tunes by students of the School of Music–Conservatorium

Wednesday 23 September

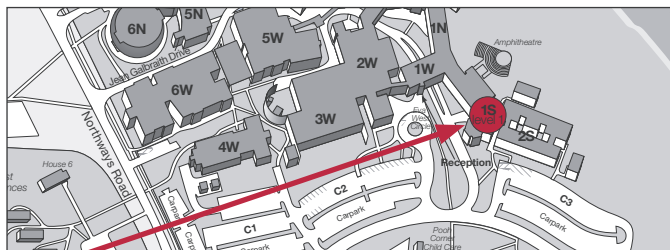

Chamber Music

Selected students from the chamber music program perform a diverse recital.

Venue

All concerts are held from 1.10 pm in the Hexagon Theatre, Room 132, Building 1S, Monash University Gippsland Campus, Northways Road, Churchill.

The School of Music – Conservatorium reserves the right to change the programs and artists if necessary.

Hexagon Theatre

Enquiries

Gippsland campus, Lindy Ypelaan:

Telephone 9 03 5122 6211

Clayton campus, Jodie Wood:

Telephone 03 9905 3230 Mobile: 0418 135 496

Web www.arts.monash.edu.au/music