

The Australian Institute of International Affairs

Victorian Branch, presents an International Careers Conference

Friday, 18 August 2006
8.30am - 4.00pm

Queen's Hall, Parliament House
Melbourne, Victoria

* PRELIMINARY NOTICE ****

*Are you interested in working in international development or perhaps in Australian organisations operating overseas?
Do you want to learn more before making your choice?
If so, this one day conference is for you.*

The purpose of the conference is to provide students and young professionals with an overview of career opportunities within the international sector across three streams: private industry, government and non-government organisations.

It will offer an interactive and contemporary perspective on the practical issues and challenges of working in a different country, with presentations by speakers who have extensive personal experience in the international arena.
