If there are no substantial factors to indicate that plagiarism was accidental or unintentional, plagiarism will be treated as cheating for the purposes of Monash Statute 4.1 – Discipline

Plagiarism: Plagiarism means to take and use another person's ideas or work and pass these off as one's own by failing to give appropriate acknowledgement. This includes material from any source – published and unpublished works, staff or students, the Internet.

Collusion: Collusion is the presentation of work which is the result in whole or in part of unauthorised collaboration with another person or persons.

Where there are reasonable grounds for believing that plagiarism has occurred, this will be reported to the Chief Examiner, who will disallow the work concerned by prohibiting assessment or refer the matter to the Faculty Manager.

For further information see the university's Plagiarism Policy at <http://www.adm.monash.edu.au/excerv/policies/Academic-Policies/policy/plagiarism-and-cheating.html>

Privacy Statement:

The information on this form is collected for the primary purpose of assessing your assignment. Other purposes of collection include recording your plagiarism and collusion declaration, attending to administrative matters and statistical analyses.
