

AUSTRALIAN HISTORICAL ASSOCIATION PRIZES 2008 – at a glance

MAGAREY MEDAL FOR BIOGRAPHY 2008

This biennial Medal and $10,000 prize is kindly donated by Adjunct Professor Susan Magarey, and is administered and judged by a panel established by the Australian Historical Association and the Association for the Study of Australian Literature. It will be awarded to the female person who has published the work judged to be the best biographical writing on an Australian subject in 2006 or 2007.

ALLAN MARTIN AWARD 2008

The Allan Martin Award is intended to help early-career historians achieve a public outcome such as a monograph, series of academic articles, exhibition, documentary film, or some mix of these, which will make a significant contribution to the field of Australian history. The $4000 biennial award may be used to cover travel for research purposes, a publication subsidy, a contribution towards exhibition or film production costs, or acquisition of documents or pictorial material: these examples are not exhaustive.

KAY DANIELS AWARD 2008

This Award has been sponsored by members and associates of the Australian Historical Association, the University of Tasmania, and the Port Arthur Historic Site Management Authority. Consisting of a $1500 prize and citation, it recognizes outstanding original research with a bearing on convict, heritage and/or early colonial history, either Australian or non-Australian published in 2006 or 2007.

W.K. HANCOCK PRIZE 2008

The W.K. Hancock Prize was instituted in 1987 by the Australian Historical Association to honour the contribution to the study and writing of history in Australia by Sir Keith Hancock. Offering a $2000 prize and citation, it is intended to give recognition and encouragement to an Australian scholar who has recently published a first book in any field of history in 2006 or 2007.

THE SERLE AWARD 2008

The Australian Historical Association has constituted the Serle Award as a biennial prize. The Award has been established through the generosity of Mrs Jessie Serle and takes the form of a publishing subsidy of $2500 for the best postgraduate thesis in Australian History completed and examined during the previous year.

Applications due 28 February 2008
